

Figure 1. Map of the study area in the North Sea. Symbols represent sampling stations. Symbols with numbers represent stations where data were available for the analysis. Symbols without numbers represent stations where data were not available for the analysis.